Warranty

Specifications provided by the product manufacturers are deemed to be correct, but MHvac Controls Depot does not guarantee their accuracy or completeness. All product dimensions are nominal, and MHvac Controls Depot should be contacted if more precise dimensions are required. Product cross reference information is based on functional equivalency and does not imply that performance and other characteristics are perfectly comparable. MHvac Controls Depot functions solely as a distributor of products manufactured by other companies, and MHvac Controls Depot's liabilities are expressly limited to those warranties and guarantees that are extended by the product manufacturers. MHvac Controls Depot makes no other warranty claims, and there are no implied warranties of merchantability or fitness. In no event is MHvac Controls Depot responsible for consequential damages. The Purchaser is responsible for installation and use of the products in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.
